

INT. LAB FACILITY - NIGHT (N5)

We follow a pair of feet walking across the immaculate floor of a lab. Revealing a TECH carrying a tablet computer. He approaches a man (DR. CAMPBELL) in a lab coat, who is working on something on a gurney. The Tech hesitates, nervous...

A beat. Campbell turns. We glimpse what he's working on; a figure lies on the gurney, hooked up to monitors.

TECH

Um... Sir? You wanted to be updated on the situation in Atlanta?

CAMPBELL

The Stewart children? Yes. You have something for me?

The Tech hands Campbell the tablet computer. On it is a grainy picture of Alex AND Lindsey through the portal.

TECH

There was an incident today. This is from one of the police body-cams.

Campbell peers at the picture with keen interest. Then:

CAMPBELL

Get me the name of lead FBI agent on the case... We have a lot to talk about.

Off his look, we SMASH TO BLACK.
